IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.11109 of 2008
DHARMSHEELA DEVI
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

3. 7.7.2008 Heard.

The allegation is of killing the bride of the house for not getting sufficient dowry by setting the young lady aged about 20 years on fire by the present petitioner and her son who was married to the deceased. The case diary indicates sufficiency of material.

The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has drawn the attention of the court towards Annexure-3 series to submit that the petitioner being a lady is in custody since 19.9.2007 and also appears not carrying a good health in the light of the findings recorded by some of the doctors. The court is not presently inclined to consider the ground of ill health of the petitioner in the light of the material collected by the police and considering that the petition is dismissed for the present.

WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL

(Dharnidhar Jha, J.)

B.Kr.